tosas

1. The narrator of a work by this author recalls feeling personally responsible for John Lennon's death after receiving color negatives of the Yellow Submarine film. After being asked to play a region's traditional music, a character created by this author plays Leonard Cohen's "Winter Lady." In another novel by this author, one character regularly wears his hair in an (*) "Elvis puff" and adopts the motto "anything can happen to anyone." That character created by this author begins storing items in the History House after being molested by the Orangedrink Lemondrink Man during a screening of The Sound of Music. For 10 points, name this author of The God of Small Things, who chronicled her tumultuous relationship with her mother Mary in a recent memoir.
ANSWER: Arundhati Roy [or Susanna Arundhati Roy]
<Simarya, Worldlit>

2. Note to moderator: This tossup is a before-and-after, but DO NOT tell the players. The YouTube video "the best science podcast isn't what you think" by Angela Collier claims that this show strongly embodies the scientific method despite containing little traditional science content. This clip occurs just after its main subject spoons half a ripe kiwi into a shaker as part of a Lush Lagoon. At the end of this radio show, which ran nationally from 1986 to 2012, one host would say "Don't drive like my brother" to which the other would reply "And don't drive like my brother." This daytime television (*) mixology clip gained widespread fame on Vine and is often paired with the Trailer Park Boys clip of someone stumbling out of a trailer. For 10 points, name this 2008 food network clip in which Sandra Lee performs a heavy pour while saying the title phrase, and this automotive NPR show featuring Click and Clack, the Tappet brothers.
ANSWER: 2 Shots of Vodkar talk [accept 2 Shots of Vodka AND Car Talk; prompt on partial answers]
<Euan, OFA>

3. In one episode of this show, one of the hosts claims that gay people walk faster than straight people because they are all singing "Womanizer" by Britney Spears in their heads at all times. A viral comment under a video of the hosts of this show giving haircuts says "the pink one so terrify." This show, which ran from 2016 to 2023, was notable for its use of a green screen background to enhance its improv format. Cuss words on this show are censored by (*) quacks. The intro of this show consists of the hosts saying nonsensical phrases, such as "I'm so, so sorry, but I just cannot have a baby in this weather," while introducing themselves. The tagline for this show is "the show where we talk about whatever we want, because it's our show, not yours." The hosts of this youtube show are both legally named Brian. For 10 points, name this short-form comedy webseries from drag queen duo Trixie Mattel and Katya Zamalodichkova (ZA-ma-low-ditch-cove-ah)
ANSWER: UNHhhh (If there is time, play the first 20 seconds of this video to show the uninformed what UNHhhh is like)
<Annabelle, Film>

4. A consonant prepended to this syllable is the hero name of a character who was inspired by Lionel Messi's childhood and has piercings based on those of Christiano Ronaldo. This is the first syllable of a class of hormones that includes the synthetic example 2,4-D and cause cell wall growth by triggering proton pumps. One animal with this syllable as its plural has an extinct (*) "great" species and is often described as a "northern hemisphere penguin". The set of rules designed to penalize pitchers for intentionally deceiving baserunners is referred to by appending this syllable to the letter B. This syllable starts an element which combined with hydrogen during the Hindenburg disaster. For 10 points, what syllable is also the name of the cord you should hand me to hear some fire beats?
ANSWER auks [or awks, or aux; prompt on auk, hawks, balks, or Auxin]
<Euan, Othersci>

5. A "famine mixture" originally used in this country was fed to liberated inmates of the Belsen concentration camp. In this country's northeast, regular famines known as "Mautam" and "Thingtam" are caused by swarms of locusts and black rats induced by the flowering of bamboo every 48 years. This country's deadliest-ever famine in the 1880s may have caused a genetic shift, resulting in predisposition towards (*) diabetes. The Chalisa ("chah-LEESS") Famine of 1784 mostly affected this country's north and killed 60% of its Doab ("doh-AHB") region. This nation's last major famine was in 1943 and was notably a result of the "denial policies" of a colonial power rather than agricultural shortfall. For 10 points, famines in what country were often a result of British policies until its independence in 1947?
ANSWER: India [accept British India British Raj or British East India Company or any answer referring to British administration of the Indian subcontinent; prompt on the Bengal Presidency or Bangladesh by asking "what nation was Bengal part of before independence?"; prompt on Myanmar or Burma by asking "what nation was Myanmar part of before independence?"; reject "Pakistan," "Nepal," "Bhutan," or "Sri Lanka"]
<Anya, Worldhist>

6. Note to players: This tossup is a before-and-after and is not a perfect combination. Original language terms required. A character is banished after killing a horse thief while en route to this institution who is the subject of a sentence that was pitted against a term originating from the SQUIRREL playtest. This institution accepted the Old Covenant in response to Aadi assuming this figure was a woman. A leader of this institution caused the Age of the Sturlungs after he attended a 2024 conference on (*) Abelian varieties. This institution was disbanded in 1800 and later named a planned replacement of pkbot. This institution was founded on the Assembly Fields when this figure graduated from Notre Dame. In 2025, This oldest legislature in the world received correspondence from Tesla J. Pratt. For 10 points, what parliament of Iceland is the recipient of an email that ends "I beg of you?"
ANSWER: Alt(h)ing Gong [accept Althing AND Ting Gong; prompt on partial answers; prompt on thing]
<Sasha, B&A>

7. Reddit user u/Fit-Cucumber1171 claimed "You just had to be there, nephew…" in response to a post asking "What's so good about" this work due to the author's perceived focus on its complaints about boners. This work was completely recreated the day before it was sent to publication, months after its creator created a similar and much shorter one that claims, "As you run through my jungles, all you hear is rumbles" in Oahu. A music video for this work shows its artist cruising through Toronto in a limo while smoking a blunt and is over twice the length of the work. Immediately following this work in the anthology in which it appears is another which begins with the note E played on the piano fifteen times. This work describes "Getting (*) Tupac money twice over," having "So many cars, DMV thought it was mail fraud," and opens by declaring, "Lookin' at my bitch, I bet she give your ass a bone." For 10 points, a very large and affluent rapper performs what concluding section of a Kanye West song that may refer to the creature on the uncensored cover of My Beautiful Dark Twisted Fantasy?
ANSWER: Rick Ross's verse on "Devil in a New Dress" [accept the final verse or third verse on "Devil in a New Dress"; prompt on "Devil in a New Dress" alone] (Rick Ross recorded his own music video for this verse, seemingly without the knowledge of Ye.)
<Yaj, AFA>

8. Note to players: This tossup is a before-and-after. A video of this character singing every part of "One Day More" from Les Mis was brought to light following this person's brief internship at Firaxis. Promotional art shows this character getting hit in the ass with a dodgeball and this person expressing gratitude for enabling a "collective tsundoku". This character serves as the main antagonist of a Dance Dance Revolution spinoff alongside the (*) Breloom that appears in this man's Twitter banner. Backlash to this character being relegated to an assist trophy in Super Smash Bros. led to many fans hiking a certain mountain in O'ahu to recreate a photo taken of this man. A pinball-themed racecourse named for this character is not far from the Altoona McDonalds where this man was arrested. For 10 points, name this tennis doubles partner of Wario and subject of an Eric Adams perp walk for his alleged killing of the United Healthcare CEO.
ANSWER: Waluigi Mangione [accept Waluigi AND Luigi Mangione; prompt on partial answers]
<Sasha (inspired by Gavin), B&A>

9. While removing this organ in the Congo, David Nott followed a series of ten steps sent via text message that ended with "Easy! Good luck." The top of this organ is attached to the body via Pirogoff's aponeurosis. This organ is traversed through its cubital fossa via the median nerve and the brachial artery. This organ is reshaped in brachioplasty. A minute character in Twin Peaks named for this organ does a (*) jig in the Black Lodge and reappears in 2017 as a neural network-like tree. This organ shares its name with a British company that develops the Cortex lines of microprocessor architectures. Removal of this organ was depicted in a 2010 biopic starring James Franco that was based on the vlog of Aron Ralston. For 10 points, name this organ that is attached to the hand via the wrist.
ANSWER: the arm [accept arm removal or armputation; accept Arm Holdings; prompt on the hand until read]
<Yaj, Biology>

10. In a canon for six voices written by this composer, each voice enters with the melody B-flat, C, A, B-flat in succession. One work by this composer opens with a repeated syncopated motif on the notes G, down to D, E-flat, down to F-sharp. Another G minor symphony by this composer begins with eighth notes E-flat, D, quarter note D, eighth notes E-flat, D, quarter note D, eighth notes E-flat, D, quarter notes D up to B-flat. This composer wrote a sonata which starts with an (*) ornamented B, A, G-sharp, A, C before it is played a second time a third higher. For 10 points, name this Austrian composer who wrote a piece that goes, "C, C, G, G, A, A, G."
ANSWER: Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
<Marcus, AFA>

11. The 20 largest cities in this state, in ascending order, are, Hurricane, Dunbar, Moundsville, Oak Hill, Charles Town, Bluefield, Bridgeport, St. Albans, Vienna, South (*) Charleston, Clarksburg, Beckley, Fairmont, Weirton, Martinsburg, Wheeling, Parkersburg, Morgantown, Huntington, and for 10 points, Charleston.
ANSWER: West Virginia
<Sasha, Geography>

12. The line "I rattle the glass doors / of the Escuela do Reino de Venilale, but they won't let me in" is from a poem titled "[This Country's] Lament". A poem from this country describes a crocodile's "lumpy hide" being "transformed into a mountain range" in an interpretation of this country's founding myth. The protagonist of one novel from this country is nicknamed after high heels and strips down naked and puts his clothing on back to front after losing his way due to "Rain-fila." A poet from this country wrote "rivers and streams / stony ways / and grassy reaches, / be silent" in his poem "One Minute Silence." That poet also wrote the national anthem of this country, Patria, and is named Francisco Borja da Costa. This country's de facto national epic is a memoir which follows Takas' studies from his home island of Atauro to his nation's capital, and then to Lisbon. That memoir is "The Crossing." For (*) 10 points, name this home country of writers Luis Cardoso and Xanana Gusmao.
ANSWER: Timor-Leste [or East Timor] (If Aaron (or anyone else) complains about this TU show them the following meme.)

<Euan, Worldlit>

13. A 1993 fashion show was the last public event held at this city's Royal Opera House, which began restoration in 2010. David Headley gathered information used in a 2008 terrorist attack on a hotel situated on this city's Marine Drive. Also targeted during the attacks was this city's (*) Victoria Terminus train station, built to commemorate Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee. A 2016 court ruling allowed women to enter the shrine of this city's Haji Ali Dargah, located near this city's Worli locality. This city came to a standstill on July 26, 2005 due to floods that shut down this city's Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Airport for the first time. For 10 points, name this capital of Maharashtra, India's most populous city.
ANSWER: Mumbai [or Bombay]
<Simarya, Worldhist>

14. Note to players: this tossup is a before-and-after. This person calls meringue a "trick food" because it looks much better than it tastes and argues that while "hate" and "war" are bad words, "fuck" isn't. This person once aspired to be the "Black Edward Scissorhands" and wrote a novel about Caitlin and Vix's friendship being strained after they both hook up with the same guy. This person hates their adopted brother partially because he stole a Phil Collins LP, and partially because he often disturbs Peter's pet turtle, Dribble, in one of this person's books. This person supposedly hired (*) Mangy Carl as their assistant at an architecture firm, who has likely never read a work by this person titled for a mixture of powder, shampoo, and soap in a bathtub. This singer of "Rosa, Rosa, Rosa," also wrote about the Pre-Teen Sensations performing exercises to increase their bust sizes and anxiously awaiting their first periods. For 10 points, name this "Pontiac Bandit" and author of Are You There, God? It's Me, Margaret.
ANSWER: Doug Judy Blume [accept Doug Judy AND Judy Blume; reject partial answers]
<Simarya, B&A>

15. The first commercially successful example of this device's energy-absorbing type was the ET-2000. Variants of heads for this device constructed to NCHRP-350 standards can be differentiated from more modern variants by its open-faced feeder chute. One device of this type subjected its manufacturer, Trinity, to several lawsuits after the company failed to report a design change narrowing its guide channel from five to four inches. A recent, unique design for one of these devices is the Valtir SoftStop, which is rated for the new MASH standards drafted by AASHTO. Obsolete designs for this type of device include the BCT and (*) turndown, the latter of which can cause vehicles to become airborne. Other early designs for these devices could spear vehicles due to their sharp, flared shape. For 10 points, what devices are placed at the ends of guardrails to safely stop motor vehicles and prevent injury during crashes?
ANSWER: guardrail terminals [accept guardrail end treatments; accept energy-absorbing terminals; prompt on guardrail anchors by asking "are u serious"; prompt on guardrails until read by asking "what devices are placed at their ends?"]
<Andrea, OtherAc>

16. Description acceptable. This work's introduction makes reference to "brian," "ounke" ("UNK-ee") and "bibledIff." In a sequel to this work, a character is shocked to find that "your voice got super deep." A character in this work is asked "you want me to get the gun?" but is defended by Acey Daddy. This work's protagonist is asked about his (*) mirth by a character who chastises him as "disrespectful." After a character in this work reveals his mother's poor finances, the protagonist closes his eyes to stifle his laughter. For 10 points, name this 2021 live stream that debuted ("day-BYOOD") with a 10/10 rating on IMDb.
ANSWER: IShowSpeed: Early Stream! [accept descriptions of a "livestream by IShowSpeed"; accept "Please, Speed, I Need This. My Mom is Kinda Homeless"]
<Aaron, Film>

17. Note to players: This tossup is a before-and-after. This foodstuff controversially did not appear at Megaplex 17 in Salt Lake City after owners alleged a "change in booking" that the work's producers denied, meaning that old advertisements featuring "Willy the Hillbilly" and the slogan "It'll tickle yore innards" stopped appearing around 1969. Anne Hathaway lied about being a skilled horseback rider and learned how to in two weeks to secure this foodstuff, which was conceptualized as a mixer for Old Taylor(*) Bourbon in the 1940s. In a 2005 film, one man shouts, "I wish I knew how to quit [this beverage]" while staring over a lake, prompting his peer to turn and mutter, "bro, I need some gamer fuel" before kissing. For 10 points, name this orange juice-based soda manufactured by PepsiCo with commercials starring Jake Gyllenhaal and Heath Ledger as gay shepherds at the titular location.
ANSWER: Brokeback Mountain Dew [prompt on answers containing Brokeback Mountain and Mountain Dew by asking, "how would you portmanteau those?"]
<Haylee, B&A>

18. In 2024 only two of these artworks were made, the less notable of which just consisted of text over a clip art blob. In early 2026 there was a massive increase in the number of these artworks being made, including numerous avant-garde examples, such as "On the origin of cattle" and one using .wgteam ("dot-W-G-team"). The official 2023 and 2024 editions of this artwork were both done by (*) Fish and featured the UWQB logo they also designed. Last year's edition of this artwork was designed by Phoebe and is based on the Catfishing.net daily game. For 10 points, an adaptation of "Born to Kill, world is a fuck" makes up what artwork which was handed out at the start of practice?
ANSWER: UWQB t-shirt designs
<Euan, UWQB>

19. A 1930 letter from a world leader called for increased production of this good to produce a "real and serious defense" for their country, which had a monopoly on this good. It's not from Ireland, but the man convicted in Olof Palme's assassination was photographed holding this good after his release. This good became a form of currency after the October 1, 1993 Order banned the usage of foreign currencies during a period of hyperinflation. Shortly after World War II ended, (*) Russia's stocks of this good were depleted within a matter of hours after having been consumed heavily in celebration. For 10 points, name this alcoholic beverage originating in Eastern Europe, made from potatoes.
ANSWER: vodka [prompt on alcohol until read] (The 1930 letter was written by Joseph Stalin and addressed to Viacheslav Molotov.)
<Simarya, Eurohist>

20. An infamous example of one of these things, known as "Triple Yellow" consisted of Banana, american cheese, and yellow mustard. Due to its abundance many early examples of these things involved mayonnaise, unfortunately including tomato soup with added mayo. There are two instances of the leftover tray of oil from roasting vegetables being one of these things. The leftover lettuce from McChicken wrappers were frequently these things from 2018-2019, during which a salad consisting only of (*) onion and celery was also frequently one of these things. On January 21st 2026 two of these things were a moderate quantity of blood, and a 30 dollar dicks order, in between which a trip to the ER was undertaken. A proprietary recipe of Spicy Garlic Noodles, Kirkland signature granola bars, and Aladdin fries are all among the highest count of these foods. For 10 points, name these constituent parts of a former UWQB president's diet.
ANSWER: Things Euan has eaten [or equivalents, prompt on Shit Euan has made, or equivalents]
<Euan, Euan>

21. One area renamed itself in 2022 to showcase its significance to these events. A 2009 Wii game that promoted these events proved to be the most critically successful in its franchise. A group formed for these events that included Birger Rund was impressed after testing a certain structure in Ogden Dunes, Indiana. Structures created for these events now sit dilapidated around (*) Sarajevo. A venue created for these events in the Santa Giulia neighborhood was criticized after officials suggested it would not be completed in time. A 1980 instance of these events featured the "Miracle on Ice" and was hosted in Lake Placid, New York. For 10 points, a torch commemorating which events can be found on the Vancouver waterfront?
ANSWER: Winter Olympics [prompt on Olympics; anti-prompt on specific sports in the Winter Olympics like skiing and bobsled; reject "Summer Olympics"]
<Sasha, Geography>

22. This city's Women's Football Alliance team, the Storm, defeated the Orlando Anarchy 62–45 to win the 2019 Division III championship. Of the three cities mentioned in Comme Des Garçons (Like the Boys) by Rina Sawayama, this city is the least populous. Similarities between the Milwaukee People's flag and this city's current flag, which features the silhouette of a mountain over a yellow circle all over a dark blue field, caused debates after it was adopted in 2018. Its previous flag featured the outline of its state next to its (*) four-letter name. This city which boasts the "Taj Mahal of Tenpins" also holds an annual eponymous Great Balloon Race at Rancho San Rafael Park. For 10 points, name this seat of Washoe County and home of Nevada's flagship public university.
ANSWER: Reno (The other two cities mentioned in Comme Des Garçons (Like the Boys) are London and Paris)
<Marcus, Otherac>

23. Note to players: Specific answer required. Kevin Walsh correctly gave this question in response to the* () 21st clue of the Double Jeopardy! Round of the 8256th game of Jeopardy! on October 12th, 2020 on his way to a locked game for his third win. The scriptures of Hinduism, Jainism and Sikhism are each unable to answer this question. In theories that preserve R-parity, the lightest supersymmetric particle could serve as an answer to this question. Friemann et al. first proposed Q-Balls as an answer to this question. Someone in the Czech (*) Republic might have asked this question when looking at the movies debuting at local theaters and viewing Karim Lakzaheh's debut satire. MOND's answer to this question would be "nothing," as it totally circumvents its premises. The hypothetical Axion particle was proposed first as a solution to the strong CP problem, but later was proposed to be the answer to this question as well. A 2021 paper answered this question by adding extra dimensions to standard model fermions. Another possible answer to this question is WIMPs, or Weakly Interacting Massive Particles which only interact via gravity. For 10 points, what is dark matter? Shit the writers fucked up remember to remove this before we submit euan
ANSWER: What is Dark Matter? (The placement of the power mark is intentional.)
<McCubbin, E. et al., Physics>

24. Description acceptable. One locale that has outlawed this practice is Coral Harbour on Southampton Island in Nunvaut. Blanc-Sablon, Quebec, has banned this practice, while Lloydminster, Creighton, and the East Kootenay region officially exercise it for the same reason. Mirroring this practice's end in the Yukon in 2020, David Eby touted 90% approval for the 2026 end of this practice in (*) British Columbia. The first official implementation of this practice in the world was in 1908 in Port Arthur and Fort William, Ontario. For 10 points, what time-changing practice involves a "spring forward" and a "fall back" every year?
ANSWER: turning the clocks for daylight savings time [accept obvious equivalents; prompt on daylight savings time]
<Anya, Canhist>

25. Description acceptable. One of these people has nine stunt doubles and is dared to grind a 200-step railing. Two of these people are named Kyle and Ken, and they vow to do everything together after simultaneously becoming part of this group. The only female one of these people claims to be "a little (*) bi-furious" and has an immediate orgasm after being prodded behind the knee. Drinking half-and-half leads to the arrest of one of these people by the Vegan Police, after which a Deveganizing ("de-vegan-izing") Ray strips him of his "vegan powers." The Power of Self-Respect sword is used to defeat Gideon Graves, the last one of these people. For 10 points, name these people that Scott Pilgrim must fight in order to date his love interest.
ANSWER: the seven evil exes of Ramona Flowers
<Simarya, Film>

26. Description acceptable. Many of these beings, including one who owns a penguin, despise the animals they keep as pets. One of these beings lives in an empty house resembling a white void. An image captures one of these beings known for dressing in drag discussing a 500-year-old pinniped. Several of these beings frequently enjoy discussing the (*) Philadelphia Eagles. An image of one of these beings depicts their affinity for Red Bull. One of these beings wears a "who ate all the pussy?" t-shirt, while another one has adopted the catchphrase "Fuck my chud life." For 10 points, Aaron Bates and Dr. House are examples of what beings that inhabit an island in a certain videogame controlled by a UWQBer from Pleasanton?
ANSWER: The Miis on Annabelle's Tomodachi Life Island [accept equivalent descriptions; accept Miis on Lesbos; prompt on inhabitants of Lesbos or Lesbians; prompt on specific Miis such as Frank Reynolds or Aaron Bates]
<Sasha, UWQB>

27. David Cope's work in this medium includes EMI ("EMMY") and Emily Howell. Mikhail Bennett collaborated with another musician on a 2026 album in this medium titled I Will See You Again. The silhouette of a man with a tall hat in front of a red moon makes up the album cover of an album in this genre which includes the song "Livin' on Borrowed Time." Eleven days ago, Christian Grace and (*) Spalexma released an album in this medium on Vivo Tunes. A song in this medium, which debuted at number 26 on the Billboard Hot Christian Songs, describes a man who "lived for Jesus / unafraid to die." For 10 points, what medium was used to create the song "We Are Charlie Kirk?"
ANSWER: artificial intelligence [or AI; accept computer-generated music; accept AI-generated music; accept AI slop]
<Aaron, A>

28. The Allison and Hackett Towers are the tallest buildings in this location, which were formerly operated by Anadarko. A symposium hosted by a subsidiary of the Rouse Company led this location to be developed following the model of Columbia, Maryland. A 2021 Voter Confidence Act was introduced by a State House representative for this location who defeated Dan (*) Crenshaw in a March 2026 primary. This location of the Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion voted in a 2021 referendum not to incorporate. This location forms an urban area with Conroe to its north, which is the seat of Montgomery County. For 10 points, name this census-designated place north of Houston, Texas.
ANSWER: The Woodlands [prompt on Montgomery County until read; reject "Woodlands"]
<Aaron, Geography>

29. In one scene from this television show, a small, sweaty man bursts out of a leather couch and emerges fully nude. An elderly main character in this show spent some of his childhood in an asylum, before eventually being discharged and granted a certificate declaring he does not have "donkey brains." In one episode of this show wherein two recurring secondary characters go to court, Guillermo del Toro portrays the patriarch of a family known for their disgusting behavior and incestuousness. One main character of this show displays incredible musical talent at various points despite being (*) illiterate, though primarily he uses this ability to write disturbing songs that suggest he was sexually abused as a child. Charlie stalks and sexually harasses an unnamed woman for the majority of this show's run. Its renewal for an eighteenth season has made this show the longest-running live-action sitcom in TV history. Danny Devito and Charlie Day are among the stars of, for ten points, what vulgar sitcom named for a type of weather and an East-coast city?

ANSWER: It's Always Sunny In Philadelphia
<Annabelle, Film>

30. The blank "I rattle the glass blanks / of the blank, but blank won't let blank in" is from a blank titled "[blank's] blanks". A blank from this blank describes a blank's "lumpy blank" being "transformed into a blank" in a blank of this blank's founding blank. The blank of one blank from this blank is nicknamed after high blanks and strips down blank and puts his blank on blank to blank after losing his blank due to blank. A blank from this blank wrote "blanks and blankss / stony blanks / and grassy blanks, / be blank" in his blank "One blank blank." That blank also wrote the national blank of this blank, blank, and is named blank. This blank's de facto national blank is a blank which follows blank's blanks from his home blank of blank to his blank's blank, and then to blank. That blank is "The blank." For 10 blanks, name this home blank of writers (*) Blank and Blank.
ANSWER: Timor-Leste [or East Timor] (If Aaron (or anyone else) complains about this TU show them the following meme.)

<Euan, Blank>

31. During the final chorus of the song Yoake (“yo-ah-keh”) Brand New Days, these things are thrown across the stage in a move known as stardusting. “Thundersnake” and “Romance” are two moves from a dance style featuring these things known as wotagei. During the song “Snow Halation”, audiences switch these things from white to orange or crack UOs, which are examples of these things often manufactured by (*) Lumica. A black ocean is a conspicuous lack of these things during a K-pop concert, often to show displeasure. NewJeans’ specific one of these things is shaped like a “U.” J-pop idols will each have their own specific color for these things, so fans can show their love for their oshi, or favorite. During slow songs, some audiences use their phones to mimic these things and sway back and forth. For 10 points, name these things, which are often waved around during concerts.
ANSWER: Penlights [accept Ultra Orange until read, accept Cyalume]
<Alan, OFA>

32. One vaccine for this disease targets prM and E proteins expressed by this disease’s pathogens and is called CYD-TDV. The Philippines Department of Health suspended a 2017 vaccination campaign against this disease after finding that it caused more severe illness in previously-uninfected individuals. Indonesia became the first country to approve the TAK-003 vaccine for this disease, which protects against its four serotypes and hasn’t yet shown to cause (*) antibody-dependent enhancement. Severe stages of this flaviviral disease include a namesake hemorrhagic fever and a namesake “shock syndrome” characterized by plasma leakage and a rapid but weak pulse. For 10 points, name this disease, which, like Zika and Chikungunya, is transmitted by Aedes aegypti.
ANSWER: dengue fever
<Simarya, Biology>

33. Note to moderator: prepare a stopwatch (the app on ur phone is fine) and read the first line prior to beginning the tossup. . For 10 points be the first buzz 23 seconds after this [start timer] word was said. A buzz any earlier is a neg and within 0.5 seconds is a power.
[wait until the first person to buzz, if they do so correctly give them either 10 or 15 points, if not read the following:]
Ok skill issue [start timer] I guess, now buzz 16 seconds after I previously said issue. Again premature buzzes are negs.
[wait, give points if after, if another premature buzz happens:]
Ok for real this time no trolling 12 seconds from gay sex [start timer].
[if there is another premature buzz the TU goes dead.]
<Euan, Euan>

34. The Life and Morals of Jesus of Nazareth* is sometimes alternatively titled for a person with this last name. A city of this name was used by one author as a stand-in for Oxford. In one game, a character with this first name is killed by a suicide bomber after helping the protagonist to enter a warehouse. A man with this first name was put under house arrest after the Eggnog Riot and later championed the creation of the U.S. Camel Corps. A city with this name serves as the seat of (*) Yoknapatawpha County in most of William Faulkner’s work. A leader with this first name apocryphally fled his capital wearing women’s clothing in a failed attempt to evade capture. Art of one man with this last name depicts him wearing a Hatsune Miku binder. For 10 points, what name is shared by Miles Morales’ father and the third U.S. president?
ANSWER: Jefferson
<Sasha, Amhist>

35. The music video from a 1993 song with this title is set entirely inside an elevator, and theres a snake, and then he gets handcuffed, oh and now he's dead; That song is by Catherine wheel. The title of a 2014 country club anthem that has a fuck ass line dance starts with this word and features the lyric "Country girl shake them hips / D-D-D-DJ make that record skip." This is the first word of a debut release in which Joseph Valence spits "I'm a womanizer like Captain Kirk / Gimme a couple honeys and I'll go to work." One comment under a (*) reddit post about a 2025 song with this one-word title says the artist "Sounds like a meth'd out minecraft villager. I do like when he says FREE THROW though." The lines "I stay straight, I stay bad, I keep my finger on the trigger" and "I get so gay off that tequila" appears on a 2025 release with this title by Slayyyter. For 10 points what verb titles the 2007 debut single by Soulja boy which opens "Youuuuuuuu".
ANSWER: Crank [accept Crank it Up; accept Crank that]
<Euan, AFA>

36. Malaysian artist Namewee produced the first Chinese language song in this genre and featured Anthony Wong in a song that mixed traditional Chinese instruments with this genre. The first trans woman to hit number 50 on Spotify was an artist in this genre, with a song produced by Bizarrap. DJ Nelson and DJ Playero were among artists who produced the first tracks in this genre, which were called (*) "riddims." A Shabba Ranks song names a core percussion element in this genre and was first coined in Puerto Rico; that element is dembow. For 10 points, name this genre of music that evolved from dancehall and reggae and is currently dominated by artists like Bad Bunny and Daddy Yankee.
ANSWER: reggaeton [or reggaetón; prompt on dancehall until read; reject "reggae"]
<Simarya, AFA>

37. One proposed etymology for this concept claims that it derives from a 17th-century French term meaning "to strike a pose boldly or provocatively." In a work establishing this concept, the author declares that Tiffany lamps, feather boas, and Aubrey Beardsley drawings are examples of it, whereas Rear Window, anything in nature, and Ripley's Believe-it-or-not are not. During a cameo on The Simpsons, a notable influence on this style defined it as "the tragically ludicrous, or ludicrously tragic." Harlem-based haberdasher and designer Dapper Dan is a major designer in this fashion aesthetic. Film examples of this aesthetic concept include(*) Death Becomes Her, Some Like It Hot, Clue, and Showgirls; Prince, Lady Gaga, Liberace, and Cher are among musicians who embody this aesthetic. This style is related to kitsch, but can be differentiated from it because contrary to kitsch, this style is informed by queer culture and history. For 10 points, name this larger-than-life aesthetic, often associated with Drag and Ball culture, defined by Susan Sontag in her essay of notes on it.
ANSWER: camp [prompt on kitsch before read]
<Annabelle, Social Science>

38. Deleted scenes from this film include the protagonist working at Krystal and participating in a Civil War reenactment. Two characters in this film engage in a nude brawl at a mortgage brokers convention after one of them is caught masturbating to a magazine photo. This movie contains a parody national anthem praising a country's (*) potassium exports and claiming that every other country is run by little girls. After attending a United Pentecostal camp meeting, this film's protagonist converts to Christianity and resumes his pursuit of Pamela Anderson, whom he attempts to abduct with a "traditional wedding sack." For 10 points, name this 2006 film starring Sacha Baron Cohen as the title Kazakh journalist.
ANSWER: Borat! Cultural Learnings of America for Make Benefit Glorious Nation of Kazakhstan
<Simarya, Film>

39. In 1987, a radio station in Florida playing one of this band's songs was forced to stop after it led to a bomb threat on the station. In that song, eight year-old Jasmine Veillette tells the title character "I can't believe in you." A face outlined by this band's name is the cover for one of their albums with an opening track that describes a child who "has his future in a (*) British steel." In another one of their songs, Andy Partridge claims to have "one, two, three, four, five" of its title concepts. For 10 points, "Senses Working Overtime" and "Making Plans For Nigel" are by what English rock band whose name refers to a type of party drug?
ANSWER: XTC
<Logan, AFA>

40. After hearing a character in this show say cats are pescatarians, another character asks, "You're telling me this cat believes in God?" While several characters in this show discuss conspiracy theories they believe in, including Stevie Wonder not being blind, one character claims that (*) "gluten intolerance is internalized white guilt." In another episode of this show, that character sees his ex at a karaoke night and performs a cover of Papa Roach's "Last Resort." After attending several history lectures about Malcolm X and MLK Jr. in this show, Ava Coleman decides to attend night school. Chris Perfetti plays Jacob Hill in, for 10 points, what sitcom created by Quinta Brunson focusing on the title Philadelphia school?
ANSWER: Abbott Elementary
<Simarya, OFA>

41. A Paul Baudry painting depicts this woman in a grey-and-white dress looking into the distance while standing by a window. This woman requested a portrait of herself by Jean-Jacques Hauer, in which she is dressed in all-white and adopts a calm expression. Tulla Larsen is likened to this woman in an Edvard Munch painting in which she stands (*) nude over a bloody corpse. In another painting, a man clutches a letter by this woman while lying dead in a bathtub; this woman justified her actions in an essay where she claimed she "killed one man to save one hundred thousand." For 10 points, name this woman who was guillotined in July 1793 after assassinating Jean-Paul Marat.
ANSWER: Charlotte Corday
<Simarya, Name a woman>

42. Note to moderator: Read slowly. Note to players: This tossup is a before-and-middle-and-after. The village of Itomori overlooks Franklin D. Roosevelt Lake on this river, which has, for some reason, been often confused for Bella's Lullaby. This song on the album First Love describes drinking sake fermented with saliva at the town of Vantage. Alternating eighth notes on A and G open this song just north of the Kootenay River, where a rock falls through clouds at "Twilight". In this film, (*) Miyamizu Mitsuha meets Yiruma on top of the Grand Coulee Dam to save this river from a meteor strike. For 10 points, what most-viewed piano piece on YouTube is dedicated to this largest river in the Pacific Northwest, which is central to this 2016 Makoto Shinkai anime film?
ANSWER: Columbia River Flows In Your Name [accept Columbia River AND River Flows in You AND Your Name; prompt on partial answers]
<Anya, Hell>

43. The formation of one area of this region has been hypothesized as the primary cause of the Great Dying. A proposed language family would connect this region's Ket language with the language of another region's Hän people. Horses and moose are being introduced to one part of this region in an attempt to recreate a formerly expansive grassland biome. This region is politically divided into 3 Federal Districts, with the most populous including the cities of Barnaul and (*) Kyzyl. Forces of a khanate that lends its name to this region were defeated by Yermak in the Battle of Chuvash Cape. Discovery of bronze artifacts in Alaska suggest trade between the Inuit and this region's Chukchi people. For 10 points, what vast region in Russia is traversed by a namesake railway?
ANSWER: Siberia [prompt on Khanate of Sibir; anti-prompt on Russian Far East or Outer Manchuria or any other random area in there people might say]
<Sasha, Geography>

44. Description acceptable. A Simon Armitage poem published in response to this event includes the line, "I have conjured a lily to light these hours, a token of thanks" and takes the form of a double acrostic. Reggie Jackson tweeted, "Now we all know I was innocent!" in reference to his character being tasked with orchestrating this event in The Naked Gun: From the Files of Police Squad! Following this event, Trevor (*) Noah commented on how its subject had witnessed Adam West, Michael Keaton, Christian Bale, Ben Affleck, and Robert Pattinson as Batman. Operation Unicorn went into effect due to this event's occurrence in Scotland, which was announced with the phrase, "London Bridge is down." For 10 points, name this 2022 event that prompted King Charles III's ascent to the English throne.
ANSWER: the death of Queen Elizabeth II (The Simon Armitage poem is "Floral Tribute.")
<Simarya, Otherac>

45. Note to players: This tossup is a before-and-after. These features have been theorized to be displayed by the ancient inhabitants of Taiwan, where a 2014 Phineas and Ferb special dedicated a musical number to this location. That musical number includes one of these features in a visual gag and shows that sportsmen frequently traverse this location in skyhoppers. Some of the oldest examples of these features have been found on Ötzi the iceman and this location's residents W. Wald and (*) Wuher. Ainu women receive these features on their mouths when they reach adulthood at a business within this location where the ability to play as a certain archaeologist can be unlocked in one game. Members of the Yakuza receive the "full-body" type of these features at events hosted on this planet such as the Boonta Eve Classic. For 10 points, henna is considered a temporary form of what bodily features from which Outer Rim planet home to the settlements of Mos Espa and Mos Eisley?
ANSWER: Tattooine [accept tattoos AND Tatooine; prompt on partial answers]
<Sasha (inspired by Gavin), B&A>

46. Note to moderator: Good Luck, you have discretion. Tuner app required. Note to Players: Performance Required. Correct Note must be sung or played on an instrument within 50 cents of the correct answer. If you cop out with a piano app you will only receive 10 points. Although not written, this note is frequently added another time in a famous aria from Donizetti's La Fille Du Regiment. The "Chanson d'Eisenach" features this note in Offenbach's The Tale of Hoffman. Both Götterdämmerung and the titular opera requires Siegfried to sing up to this note. Prince Calaf sings "Vincerò" thrice, eventually climaxing at this note in "Nessun Dorma." For 15 points, sing a Tenor C?
ANSWER: C5 [523.25 Hz; reject "C5" spoken as a word]
<Gavin, AFA>

47. This action was the answerline for the 12th tossup of the first packet of 2024 PLAYTIME. In an attempt to legally recreate a moment from the second season of Jet Lag: The Game, this action was recommended to an individual with a 1209-song playlist. This action was taken twice by a member of the American Society of Microbiology and a future member of the American Association of (*) Geographers and involved the purchase of a chocolate Basque cheesecake and small Greek fries from Aladdin's. One of these actions during ACF Regionals 2025 was canceled following the PPG of both its participants being higher than anticipated. For 10 points, during Winter Classic 2026, Simarya and Sasha engaged in what action over which staffer would be the first to swear in front of the children?
ANSWER: sports betting [prompt on betting; prompt on gambling]
<Simarya, UWQB>

48. Note to players: This tossup is a before-and-after. The legality of this practice in the United States has been litigated by cases such as State v. Collier (1985), in which the defense argued it constituted a "social activity" titling a 2020 album by the metal supergroup Blood from the Soul. An Etruscan tomb contains the first visual representation of this practice, which depicts it being done with a cane dates to around the 5th century BCE, making it the only one in its series to include an Arabic numeral in its title rather than a Roman numeral. The annual Folsom Street Fair features demonstrations of many practices falling under this umbrella term, released in 2013 and updated in 2022, which prompted the inclusion of (*) "-TR" at the end of its name. This acronym was first recorded on Usenet in 1991, when the advent of chatrooms allowed people to more easily seek those with complimentary non-normative sexual preferences, and it included the term "gender dysphoria" for the first time. For 10 points, name this sexual subculture with a four-part acronym, published as a diagnostic tool by the American Psychological Association.
ANSWER: BDSM-5 [Prompt on any answer containing Bondage OR Discipline OR Dominance OR Submission OR Sadism OR Masochism or BDSM AND the DSM-5 but look exhausted because they don't know what a before-and-after question entails]
<Haylee, B&A>

49. A transit agency known by these three letters is headquartered at 2200 Upper James Street and services its namesake city and the nearby suburb of Burlington. These three letters are the common name of a triply-eponymous "Improvements Act" that amended the Clayton Antitrust Act. A cellular "response" that is abbreviated to these three letters increases the production of (*) chaperonins to prevent protein misfolding. A video game shortened to these three letters was first revealed in an online concert named Starfire Sonorant, and uses the warp system to obtain characters. That 2023 video game known by these three letters was developed by miHoYo, who earlier released Genshin Impact. For 10 points—the Tokaido Shinkansen can be classified as what three letter abbreviation for high-speed rail?
ANSWER: HSR [accept the HSR Act; do not accept full names]
<Aaron, submit it on time next time Otherac>

50. Note to players: This tossup is a before-and-after. This phrase was created after a 2020 hijacking of Ninja's Twitter account, in which a woman yells "Krishnamurti" three times. Alterations of this phrase include a description of a "hairy genius" and it being spelled with underscores, as well as Dr. Mackenzie-King's operation on his own liver. Several years after an event on the now-defunct website BlogTV, the subject of this phrase defended himself as being "nine percent black" and shouted "it's not that way, it's over here!" The subject of this phrase created both "Fortnite Friday" and "Minecraft (*) Monday," and its opening setting includes an "English armchair" on an "English evening," among other English things. In 2010, the subject of this phrase called a BattleCam.com moderator named Alex a racial slur at a dinner party between the Smiths and the Martins. For 10 points—give this phrase about the disgraced host of DramaAlert, written by Eugene Ionesco.
ANSWER: Keemstar is a Bald Soprano
<Aaron, submit it on time next time B&A>

51. In 2013, this leader was quoted as saying "A woman becomes a lesbian only if we men are so wretched," while speaking to Russian media. According to some rumors, it is illegal in this leader's country to photograph the back of his head, although the claim is not confirmed by reputable sources. In 2012, this leader told German foreign minister Guido Westerwelle that it was better to "be a (*) dictator than to be gay," unaware of the minister's sexual orientation. In May 2021, this leader signed a new law absolving police and security forces of responsibility for killing protesters. In his country, this leader is sometimes known as "Bakta", meaning "father," and a "President of the ordinary people." For 10 points, name this leader who ordered the detention of opposition leader Roman Protasevich from a Ryanair flight in 2021 and has been President of Belarus since 1994.
ANSWER: Aleksandr Grigoryevich Lukashenko [or Alyaksandr Ryhoravich Lukashenka]
<Andrea, Eurohist>

Boners

1. This bonus was written by Anya Srinivasan. For 10 points each:
[10m] Owing to its remote nature, the Annamite mountain range on this international border is home to incredible biodiversity. Western scientists first identified the Annamite striped rabbit in a market near this border in 1996, and the critically-endangered red-shanked douc [DOOK] is only found around this international border.
ANSWER: Laos-Vietnam border
[10e] Robert J. Timmins was the biologist who first identified the Annamite striped rabbit. The same year, at a separate, nearby market, Timmins was also responsible for the first identification of this rodent. In 2005, studies indicated that this rodent is the only living member of its family.
ANSWER: Laotian rock rat [or Laonastes aenigmamus, or kha-nyou]
[10h] The existence of this mammal whose range spans the Laos-Vietnam border may have been largely unknown to locals until its discovery by a team of mostly Vietnamese biologists in 1992. This antelope-like mammal is the earliest-diverged boVIN [emphasize "VIN"] still extant, and is sister to buffalo and cattle.
ANSWER: Saola [or Pseudoryx nghetinhensis, or spindlehorn, or Asian unicorn, or Vu Quang bovid]
<Anya, Biogeography>

2. Taking MICROM 450 led the question's author to develop a fascination for how viruses can cause this disease as a side effect of disrupting cellular processes. For 10 points each:
[10e] Name this disease, whose cervical form is caused by HPV integrating into a host's genome.
ANSWER: cancer [accept cervical cancer; accept cervical carcinoma]
[10h] The E6 and E7 proteins encoded in the HPV genome degrade these two tumor suppressors, allowing the cell cycle to occur uncontrolled and promote the reproduction of tumor cells. Name both.
ANSWER: p53 AND pRB [reject partial answers]
[10m] HPV remains persistent in the human body because it effectively infects the basal layer, which is the deepest part of this skin layer.
ANSWER: epidermis
<Simarya, Biology>

3. If I had a nickel for every time one of these oddly specific events happened, I'd have 2 nickels which isn't a lot, but it's weird it happened twice. For 10 points each:
Answer some questions about rare occurrences in history. The author of the question has met two people at UW from this town, the sixth largest in its state. Originally settled with the paper milling industry, this town was the site of the first successful electric streetcar. This is the hometown of Esmir Bajraktarevic who scored the decisive penalty for Bosnia and Herzegovina to qualify over Italy for the 2026 World Cup.
ANSWER: Appleton, WI
This geodesic dome enthusiast managed to get expelled from Harvard twice. He is best known for a portmanteau of the words dynamic, maximum, and tension.
ANSWER: Buckminster Fuller (Portmanteau is Dymaxion)
This city elected an openly gay mayor twice and serves as the current hometown of two Quizbowlers. This H-Town may have a problem but like in space.
ANSWER: Houston
<Gavin, Geography>

4. Answer the following about contemporary personae non gratae, for 10 points each:
[10h] This man was suspended from the NHL in 2021 for having "breached his obligation" to the Arizona Coyotes and considered a persona non grata until he was hired as the GM of the Toronto Maple Leafs on May 3, 2026.
ANSWER: John Chayka
[10m] This author's status as a persona non grata was the subject of the essays "Why Do I Fast?" and "The Man Died." Four girls in a play by this author pretend to be wheels of a car in the "Dance of the Lost Traveler."
ANSWER: Wole Soyinka [or Akinwande Oluwole Babatunde Soyinka]
[10e] This student at Seven Lakes High School was labeled a "persona non grata" by Dr. Eric Mukherjee following a series of breaches of secure question content.
ANSWER: Samin Asif [accept either underlined portion]
<Aaron, Otherac>

5. Yeah, I'm a PNW Stam, for 10 points answer some questions about Half As Interesting videos featuring the PNW.
[10m] This town's port, through which 10% of all US wheat exports flow, is the subject of the HAI video "Why There's a Pacific Ocean Port in Idaho".
ANSWER: Lewiston [if they answer Clarkston fucking shoot them or something idk]
[10e] The small Alaskan town of Bethel is featured in a HAI video due to its extremely high number of these vehicles per capita, which is largely due to personal vehicles being prohibitively expensive.
ANSWER: taxis [or taxicabs]
[10h] For those of you who don't consider Idaho or Alaska as part of the PNW, I see you and I gotchu. HAI made a video on project West Ford, a botched Cold War program which involved creating an artificial ionosphere using these devices to transmit radio signals.
ANSWER: Space needles [accept Copper space needles; prompt on copper needles or needles]
<Euan, Wendover Productions>

6. Last summer, I was obsessed with the F1 movie soundtrack, which was 50% of the reason that I watched the movie. Answer the following about my thoughts on it, for 10 points each:
[10m] I was a huge fan of "Lose My Mind" by Don Toliver and Doja Cat, which incorporated an instrumental by this composer. This composer included rhythm-heavy electronic tracks like "Built for Combat" into the F1 soundtrack.
ANSWER: Hans Zimmer
[10h] I had my reservations about how RAYE's song about this person calling the boy "bad news" fit into the movie, but it wasn't played. In another RAYE song, she sings that this woman said, "Your husband is coming."
ANSWER: her grandma [accept "Grandma Calls the Boy Bad News"]
[10e] Another personal favorite of mine from the F1 soundtrack was "Underdog" by this rapper who also happened to release "The Box" on my 14th birthday.
ANSWER: Roddy Ricch [or Rodrick Wayne Moore, Jr.]
<Simarya, AFA>

7. Note to players: there may be slight factual inaccuracies in the following question due to my poor memory and note taking. Answer some questions about QB related Richard Lin crashouts, for 10 points each:
[10e] Due to its highly varying difficulty and jank packetization, this "HSNCT"-level housewrite has caused multiple Richard crashouts.
ANSWER: DART IV [prompt on DART]
[10h] In one of his more memorable misses, Richard directed this composer as a guess for the first and second part of a bonus, then when this composer was the third, easy part, inexplicably directed someone else.
ANSWER: Franz Joseph Haydn
[10m] In a classic case of Richard Lin indicator neg, after a 2023 ILLIAC tossup asked for a country he directed this thinker instead of Italy after buzzing on Discourses on Livy.
ANSWER: Machiavelli
<Euan, UWQB>

8. This village is described as a "startled animal with ears erect, sniffing the silent, ominous air and not knowing which way to run." For 10 points each:
[10h] Name this village that "[speaks] its mind" following the beating of an iron gong. Following the unmasking of an elder of this village, Enoch's home is burned to the ground.
ANSWER: Umuofia
[10e] Umuofia is the central village in Arrow of God and this other Chinua Achebe novel, in which Okonkwo is exiled to Mbanta for seven years after accidentally killing Ezeudu's son.
ANSWER: Things Fall Apart
[10m] In Abame, a village near Umuofia and Mbanta, villagers kill a "harbinger of locusts" with an "iron horse," who was actually someone with this profession. Okonkwo's son Nwoye leaves Mbanta to join people with this occupation.
ANSWER: Christian missionaries
<Simarya, Worldlit>

9. Water shed? I like my sheds solid, usually. For 10 points each:
[10e] Coutts ("COOTS"), Alberta; Olean ("OH-lee-ann"), New York; and Lake Itasca ("eye-TASS-kuh"), Minnesota are three places in this large drainage basin, indicating that water poured there will end up in the Gulf of Mexico.
ANSWER: watershed of the Mississippi River [accept equivalents]
[10m] Coutts residents may drive an hour north to the city of Lethbridge for work, unwittingly crossing the Laurentian one of these hydrological borders. The crossing of this border signifies that water poured in Lethbridge will end up in Hudson Bay.
ANSWER: continental divide [prompt on divide]
[10h] Note to moderator: read the full answerline carefully. Coutts lies in the catchment area of a small tributary of the Missouri River. You will get 20 points if you can name that river, and 10 points for each other river you name that flows into the Missouri.
ANSWER(s): Milk River [20 points] [10 points for any other river that flows into the Missouri: Marias, Yellowstone, Little Missouri, Cheyenne, White, Niobrara (20 points cause that's my favorite one), James, Vermillion, Big Sioux, Little Sioux, Little Platte, Kansas, Osage, Gasconade, and others; prompt on Grand by asking "in what state does that river join the Missouri?" and accept if the answer is South Dakota or Missouri; prompt on Platte by asking "in what state does that river join the Missouri?" and accept if the answer is Nebraska or Missouri; reject "North Platte"; reject "South Platte"; if unsure, open omegle text chat and ask the first stranger who pops up]
<Anya, River>

10. You're a high school senior applying to colleges and you feel like you need to study something cool and unique. Answer the following about some niche college majors, for 10 points each:
[10e] You consider applying to this university, the only one in the U.S. to offer a Bachelor's degree in bagpiping. Notable alumni of this Pittsburgh university's School of Music include Ted Danson and Leslie Odom, Jr.
ANSWER: Carnegie Mellon University [or CMU]
[10h] Maybe you'd rather go to Kansas State, the only school to offer a degree in the science and management of these places, the first of which were the pastrinas of Ancient Rome.
ANSWER: bakeries
[10m] Perhaps, you want to attend Brown University and pursue a concentration in this country's namesake field of study, for which a required class titled "The Great Heresy" focuses on this country during the Amarna Period.
ANSWER: Egypt [accept Egyptology]
<Simarya, POV>

11. This person collaborated with Alfred O. Nier to refine the precision of mass spectrometry, which he used to date belemnites. For 10 points each:
[10h] Name this scientist, the first to realize the effect of temperature on oxygen isotope fractionation. That discovery by this scientist helped pioneer the field of paleoclimatology and oxygen isotope thermometry.
ANSWER: Harold Urey
[10e] Urey's expertise in isotope separation led to his recruitment into this American military project. This project was led by Leslie Groves Jr., while J. Robert Oppenheimer was the director of its Los Alamos Laboratory.
ANSWER: Manhattan Project [or Development of Substitute Materials]
[10m] The Manhattan Project's P-9 Project was tasked with synthesizing this substance, which Urey contributed to by discovering one of its constituent isotopes in 1931. This precious substance was a superior neutron moderator for nuclear fission when compared to graphite.
ANSWER: heavy water [or deuterium oxide; or $^{2}H_{2}O$; or $D_{2}O$] (The constituent isotope was deuterium.)
<Andrea, OtherSci/AARHUS>

12. Note to moderator: make the transition from part 2 to part 3 as seamless as possible, respond to perceived interruptions as answers (e.g. "Isn't there supposed to be a part three", should be met with "is that directed?")
Since yall like spooning so much, answer some questions about spoons. For 10 points each:
[10e] Spoon theory was first described by Christine Miserandino to describe the limited mental and physical energy of people with chronic illness. Miserandino herself shares this chronic autoimmune disease with Selena Gomez, which according to House MD, is never the answer.
ANSWER: Lupus
[10h] Spoon Class theory, which is an extended development of the idiom "born with a silver spoon in one's mouth", was first developed in online communities of this country. In 2019 this country's leader resigned and acknowledged that he was a "golden spoon".
ANSWER: South Korea [or Republic of Korea]
[10m] Tossup 13, speedruns of one videogame in this franchise heavily relied on an item duplication glitch facilitated by mounts inducing "fuzzy position coordinates". In that game in this franchise another glitch called "GreenRed" led to many players getting softlocked on the first boss. Only two characters in this franchise appear in all games, one of which has no dialogue, or name, and is known by the community as "The Shuffler." This franchise's other consistent character is found in Hasino village, and is thought to be immortal. This franchise's abilities are unlocked via "scrolls of time" and many of them revolve around speeding up or slowing natural processes. For 10 points, name this time themed open world RPG released in 2024 that doesnt exist thats right fuckers we're still in Bonus 12 everything since the previous part was entirely made up lolololololol. Anyways what literary term describes 90% of this bonus part.
ANSWER: red herring [prompt on distraction]
<Euan, Euan>

13. Answer some questions about the music featured in Fantasia 2000, Disney's second installment of the Fantasia anthology. For 10 points each:
[10m] This Respighi piece accompanies an animation of flying humpback whales, although its title would suggest "something completely different." This piece, the second of three in a series about its namesake city, evokes images of "romantic ruins" and "tree-lined streets."
ANSWER: Pines of Rome [or Pini di Roma]
[10e] This piece is set to arguably the most famous animation in Fantasia 2000, depicting several short stories of the residents of New York City. This Gershwin piece is well-known for its introductory clarinet glissando.
ANSWER: Rhapsody in Blue
[10h] An adaptation of The Steadfast Tin Soldier is set to the first movement of this uncharacteristically light and cheerful Shostakovich concerto. Originally written for his son Maxim, this 1957 concerto is generally more well known for its second movement.
ANSWER: Piano Concerto No. 2 [accept equivalents]
<Andrea, AFA/AARHUS>

14. Answer the following about unique accomplishments, for 10 points each:
[10h] Note to players: Seven answers required, including repeats. A post on r/kendricklamar stated that Lamar has achieved PEGGING status, which is made up of these seven non-distinct awards.
ANSWER: Pulitzer Prize, Emmy, Grammy, Grammy, iHeart Radio Music Award, Nickelodeon Kids' Choice Award, Grammy [accept answers in any order; accept answers which indicate that Lamar has won three Grammy awards in addition to the other awards listed]
[10e] Glenn Close was nominated for an Academy Award as Best Supporting Actress in this 2020 film, where she played J.D. Vance's "Mamaw." She was also nominated for a Golden Raspberry as Worst Supporting Actress for the same role.
ANSWER: Hillbilly Elegy
[10m] The "Two-Can-Ju-Do" was proposed as a Canadian analogue to the EGOT in 2018. It consists of Canadian Screen Awards in film and television as well as these other two awards in music and theater. Name either award.
ANSWER: Juno Award or Dora Mavor Moore Award
<Marcus, OFA>

15. This player won the inaugural Rookie of the Year Award in 1947, which was renamed for him in 1987. For 10 points each:
[10e] Name this first African-American player in Major League Baseball. He debuted with the Brooklyn Dodgers in April 1947 and was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962.
ANSWER: Jackie Robinson [or Jack Roosevelt Robinson]
[10m] Prior to being signed to the Dodgers, Robinson played for this Negro League team. Buck O'Neill was a first baseman and later a manager for this team who later helped establish the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in this team's home city.
ANSWER: Kansas City Monarchs [prompt on Kansas City]
[10h] This Hall of Famer and Monarchs pitcher from 1940 to 1947 had a nearly 40-year long career. His repertoire of deceptive and off-speed pitches made him notorious in the MLB while playing for the Cleveland Indians and St. Louis Browns, and he pitched three shutout innings in a 1965 token appearance with the Athletics.
ANSWER: Satchel Paige [or Leroy Robert Paige]
<Andrea, Sports/AARHUS>

16. According to the Dual-process hypothesis, this state aids in acquisition of subconscious knowledge called "procedural memory." For 10 points each:
[10m] Name this state which David Maurice hypothesized was important to circulate oxygen through the aqueous humor. Graeme Mitchison and Francis Crick proposed that this state is involved with "unlearning" via removal of "parasitic thoughts."
ANSWER: Rapid Eye Movement [prompt on, but do not otherwise reveal REM]
[10e] Note to moderator: read the full answerline carefully. After being inquired by sleep researchers this band clarified that they named themselves at random from a dictionary, not after Rapid Eye Movement. This band released the album Out of Time.
ANSWER: [prompt on R.E.M. by asking "what does R.E.M. stand for," if they respond R.E.M. again, or say 'it doesn't stand for anything' or equivalents, give them the points, if they try to say any acronym, do not give points]
[10h] REM is also the name of this unit used to measure radiation dose, which is equivalent to 0.01 sieverts.
ANSWER: rem [prompt on rontgen equivalent man by asking "what is the common abbreviation"]
<Euan, Othersci>

17. A person who previously held this occupation led an army into Chile in 1619, massacring many Mapuche people without revealing they were a woman. For 10 points each:
[10h] Name this occupation formerly held by Catalina de Erauso, who achieved the rank of second lieutenant under the name Antonio.
ANSWER: nun
[10m] Deborah Sampson disguised herself as Robert Shurtleuff and joined the Fourth Regiment of this state during the Revolutionary War. In 1983, Sampson was proclaimed the Official Heroine of the Commonwealth of this state.
ANSWER: Massachusetts
[10e] This woman disguised herself as a man and became a key figure in the French military during the siege of Orléans. This woman was put on trial for heresy in 1431 and burned at the stake.
ANSWER: Joan of Arc [or Jeanne D'Arc]
<Simarya, Otherhist>

18. It's your birthday. For 10 points each:
[10m] We gon' party like
ANSWER: It's your birthday
[10e] We gon' sip Bacardí like
ANSWER: It's your birthday
[10h] And you know we don't give a fuck
ANSWER: It's not your birthday
<Yaj, AFA>

19. Fuck you, this is my slop and I can diffscale however I want. Name these diseases and conditions that can be transmitted vertically across the placenta during pregnancy, for 10 points each:
[10e] Sabre shins, mulberry molars, and Hutchinson's triad are all clinical signs of congenital infection with this spirochete-caused disease.
ANSWER: congenital Syphilis
[10m] If a pregnant person contracts this vaccine-preventable viral disease, the fetus has a high risk of being affected by a congenital syndrome associated with it, possibly resulting in sensorineural deafness, blueberry muffin rash, and/or a characteristic "salt-and-pepper" retinopathy.
ANSWER: Rubella
[10h] This deadly foodborne pathogen greatly increases the risk of stillbirth and spontaneous abortion in pregnant populations. Outbreaks are most frequently associated with dairy products including ice cream, as it can survive at very low temperatures. (That's why you shouldn't consume raw dairy.)
ANSWER: Listeria [accept listeriosis; accept L. monocytogenes]
<Annabelle, Biology>

20. Y'all know I appreciate a good crossover episode, especially when it's a Bollywood-Hollywood musical crossover. For 10 points each:
[10m] In a remix of this song on the Slumdog Millionaire soundtrack, Nicole Scherzinger from The Pussycat Dolls sings "I'll make you hot / Get all you got / I'll make you wanna say [this title phrase.]"
ANSWER: "Jai Ho!" [accept "Jai Ho! (You Are My Destiny)"]
[10h] In 2006, The Pussycat Dolls released a remix of their song "Buttons," featuring this artist who also collaborated with Akshay Kumar and RDB on the title track for the movie Singh is Kinng.
ANSWER: Snoop Dogg [or Snoop Lion; or Calvin Cordozar Broadus Jr.]
[10e] I'm also here for this singer's recent collaborations with South Asian artists, including "Sapphire" with Arijit Singh and "Don't Look Down," with Dhee, Santhosh Narayanan, and Hanumankind. This singer also sang "Shape of You."
ANSWER: Ed Sheeran [or Edward Christopher Sheeran]
<Simarya, AFA>

21. The EO-23 mission aboard this spacecraft saw both a dangerous fire erupt in its Kvant-1 module, as well as its Spektr module permanently damaged during an experimental docking maneuver. For 10 points each:
[10m] Name the first modular space station. This space station helped pave the way for the ISS and served for 15 years before being deorbited in 2001.
ANSWER: Mir
[10e] Mir orbited in this orbital level, which is shared by the majority of all artificial satellites. Objects at this orbital level have a period of 128 minutes or less and peak in altitude around 800 km from Earth's surface.
ANSWER: low Earth orbit [or LEO]
[10h] The longest single human spaceflight was conducted aboard Mir by this Russian cosmonaut. This cosmonaut volunteered for that 437-day flight to study the effects of long-term microgravity environments on human health.
ANSWER: Valeri Vladimirovich Polyakov [accept Valeri Ivanovich Korshunov]
<Andrea, OtherAc/AARHUS>

22. This physician was described as the "savior of mothers," but his ideas were initially rejected by the medical community and led to his dismissal from the Vienna General Hospital. For 10 points each:
[10m] Name this scientist who proposed that doctors and midwives should wash their hands with chlorinated lime to reduce the incidence of childbed fever in new mothers.
ANSWER: Ignaz Semmelweis
[10h] This Soviet botanist was jailed for opposing Lysenkoist agricultural techniques like vernalization and the inheritance of acquired characteristics, and created the world's largest collection of plant seeds.
ANSWER: Nikolai Vavilov or [Nikolai Ivanovich Vavilov]
[10e] While John Scopes wasn't jailed for his actions, he was put on trial for teaching this concept in schools. This concept is said to have occurred if the allele frequencies of a population have changed over a period of time.
ANSWER: evolution
<Simarya, Otherhist>

23. Do you ever wish baseball was actually fun? For 10 points each:
[10h] A tunnel named for this left fielder carries I-90 under Boston Harbor. After this man's death, he was cryonically frozen, possibly against his own wishes.
ANSWER: Ted Williams [prompt on Teddy Ballgame, the Kid, the Splendid Splinter, or the Thumper]
[10m] A baseball card of this Dutchman is the macguffin of the Nickelodeon movie Swindle. That card featuring this player is one of the rarest in the world, with only around 57 in existence.
ANSWER: Honus Wagner
[10e] This Puerto Rican player for the Pittsburgh Pirates posthumously received the Presidential Medal of Freedom after he was killed in a plane crash while delivering aid to earthquake victims in Nicaragua
ANSWER: Roberto Clemente
<Sasha, Sport>

24. Note to moderator: Read the lead-in in any accent besides a stereotypical Long Island accent, but pronounce the words "Long Island" in a stereotypical Long Island accent. I promise you should do it. YOU are doing a thing. YOU are making history. I told my daughter not to give the dog coffee. Now I have a dumb daughter, a dead dog, and no coffee! Answer the following about Long Island geography, for 10 points each:
[10m] Note to players: Two answers required. Sands Point and Kings Point, located on the north shore's Cow Neck and Great Neck peninsulas respectively, serve as real-life inspiration for these two fictional locations. Throughout the 20th century, these two areas contained the estates of Walter P. Chrysler and the IBM Country Club.
ANSWER: East Egg AND West Egg
[10e] The writer sincerely apologizes about Long Island being racist. A causeway named after this person ends at a roundabout on Fire Island, where drivers can turn onto a state parkway named after this person. Inside the roundabout is a water tower named after this person, which is located in a state park also named after this person.
ANSWER: Robert Moses [accept Satan]
[10h] This proposed county is made up of the five easternmost towns of Suffolk County. This proposed county's name comes from the body of water which separates the North and South Forks of Long Island, which is separated from Gardiners Bay by Shelter Island.
ANSWER: Peconic County [accept Peconic Bay; accept Great Peconic Bay or Little Peconic Bay]
<Marcus, Geography>

25. The first modern implementation of this tactic used F-100 Super Sabres outfitted with AN/APR-25 radar homing and warning receivers, but their effectiveness was very limited. For 10 points each:
[10e] Identify this tactic that typically involves targeting of surface-to-air missile sites and other anti-aircraft implements. Modern electronic warfare aircraft that can jam ground-based radars are also considered a component of this tactic.
ANSWER: Suppression of Enemy Air Defenses ("seed" or "said") [accept Destruction of Enemy Air Defenses ("deed" or "dead")]
[10h] During most of the Cold War, this codename was used to refer to all American SEAD ("seed") operations, whose pilots used the unofficial mottos "First In, Last Out" and "You've Gotta Be Shitting Me." This codename is memorialized in the tail codes of the 35th and 37th Fighter Wings, "WW," both of which were once dedicated SEAD units.
ANSWER: Wild Weasel
[10m] This missile is the most advanced anti-radiation missile in use with the USAF. This missile replaced the AGM-45 Shrike and AGM-78 Standard ARM starting in 1985.
ANSWER: AGM-88 HARM [accept either underlined portion; or High-speed Anti-Radiation Missile]
<Andrea, Other/AARHUS>

26. This operation would eventually result in the Guatemalan Civil War six years later. For 10 points each:
[10h] Name this operation carried out by the United States government in 1954 that deposed Guatemalan President Jacobo Árbenz.
ANSWER: Operation PBSuccess
[10e] This organization was responsible for carrying out Operation PBSuccess. Under its director at the time, Allen Dulles, this organization also began Project MKUltra and attempted to overthrow Fidel Castro in the Bay of Pigs invasion.
ANSWER: Central Intelligence Agency [or CIA]
[10m] This company had close ties to Dulles and lobbied the United States government to see Árbenz's administration as communist after he passed land redistribution and labor legislation. This company would be later renamed to Chiquita Brands International.
ANSWER: United Fruit Company [or UFC]
<Richard Lin, ACFslop>

27. Answer some questions about non-firefighting activities of the Seattle Fire Department. For 10 points each:
[10h] This SFD program established in 2016 provides services for non-emergent calls, such as neglect of vulnerable adults or behavioral health issues. This program includes Health One, the Post-Overdose Response Team, the Vulnerable Adult Program, the Nurse Practitioner program, and a team of case managers.
ANSWER: Mobile Integrated Health [accept Low Acuity Alarm Program]
[10e] The name "Health One" is modeled on the name of this other SFD program established in 1970. This program provides ambulances and emergency medical care in partnership with Harborview Medical Center and the University of Washington.
ANSWER: Medic One
[10m] The Medic unit stationed in University District bears this number. That medic unit is located at the station of this number, which also houses a corresponding engine with this number, Ladder 9, and Battalion 6.
ANSWER: 17 [accept Medic 17 or M17; accept Station 17; accept Engine 17 or E17]
<Andrea, Other>

28. If I had a nickel for every time a broken landing gear indicator and poor crew resource management led to a commercial aircraft making a controlled flight into terrain, I'd have three, maybe four nickels depending on how you count. For 10 points each:
[10e] This Lockheed L-1011 ("L-ten-eleven") crashed into the Everglades after the captain mistakenly bumped the control column while trying to fix a burnt out landing gear light, inadvertently disabling the autopilot and causing a slow descent that went unnoticed until it was too late. This flight was also the first hull loss of a L-1011 Tri-Star.
ANSWER: Eastern Air Lines Flight 401 [or EA401; or EAL401; or EASTERN 401]
[10m] Damage caused by the free-fall of the right gear of this DC-8 caused the gear indicator circuit to fail, leading to the crew aborting the landing in order to diagnose the problem. The crew of this aircraft failed to monitor fuel levels, leading to this aircraft crashing into a Portland suburb.
ANSWER: United Airlines Flight 173 [or UA173; or UAL173; or UNITED 173]
[10h] This other DC-8 crashed into Santa Monica Harbor after the nose gear light burnt out while on final approach, leading to the crew losing track of altitude while trying to confirm the gear position. By the time of its crash, this flight had been delayed by three hours, putting enough additional pressure to break down crew communication.
ANSWER: Scandinavian Air Systems Flight 933 [or Scandinavian Airlines Flight 933; or SK933; or SAS933; or SCANDINAVIAN 933]
<Andrea, Other/AARHUS>

29. Kill everyone now! Condone first degree murder! Advocate cannibalism! Eat shit! Filth are my politics, filth is my life! Take whatever you like! The Catholic pope might be from Chicago, but the Pope of Trash is from Baltimore. For 10 points each:
[10e] Name this iconic director known for his transgressive cult films like Female Trouble, as well as more mainstream movies like Hairspray. He filmed most of his movies on the streets of Baltimore with his childhood friends, who he called Dreamlanders.
ANSWER: John Waters
[10m] The most prominent of the Dreamlanders was this drag queen, who originated the role of Edna Turnblad. This drag queen and disco star also served as the inspiration for the design and character of Ursula in The Little Mermaid.
ANSWER: Divine
[10h] Divine plays a character of the same name in this 1970 John Waters film, which was made on a budget of just $5,000. In it, Mink Stole and Divine engage in the bizarre erotic act of penetration with a rosary while recounting the death of Christ.
ANSWER: Multiple Maniacs
<Annabelle, Film>

30. This work begins with a person reading News of the World on a Sunday afternoon and notes an "Elizabethan period" between 1850 and 1925. For 10 points each:
[10h] Name this George Orwell essay in which he claims that poisoning is the ideal form of homicide.
ANSWER: "Decline of the English Murder"
[10e] In "Decline of the English Murder," Orwell puts nine serial killers into categories, with this man being in a class of his own. This man's "canonical five" victims were Whitechapel prostitutes brutally murdered in 1888.
ANSWER: Jack the Ripper [or Whitechapel Murderer, or Leather Apron]
[10m] Orwell argued that the ideal murderer should be a strong advocate for this cause, which in the U.S was promoted by Simon Benson's "bubbler" fountains in Portland and a union led by Frances Willard.
ANSWER: temperance [or prohibitionism; accept descriptions of "banning alcohol"]
<Simarya, Otherac>

31. If I had a nickel for every time an improperly repaired tail strike on a Boeing 747 led to an in-flight structural failure and disintegration, I'd have two nickels. For 10 points each:
[10e] This flight was the deadliest single-aircraft accident in history. After the aft pressure bulkhead exploded, severing the tail controls, the pilots managed to keep this aircraft aloft for 32 more minutes before crashing into Mount Takamagahara.
ANSWER: Japan Airlines Flight 123 [or JA 123; or JAL 123; or JAPANAIR 123]
[10h] The other instance of a 747 being destroyed following a tail strike was this flight over the Taiwan straight, which disintegrated into four large parts after metal fatigue combined with damage from the strike led to the fuselage tearing open 20 minutes after takeoff.
ANSWER: China Airlines Flight 611 [or CI 611; or CAL 611; or DYNASTY 611]
[10m] The initial investigation into CAL 611 considered that the airplane had been destroyed in the same manner as this 1996 flight. This Boeing 747 was brought down when a short-circuit led to the fuel tank detonating shortly after taking off from JFK.
ANSWER: Trans World Airlines Flight 800 [or TW 800; or TWA 800]
<Andrea, Other/AARHUS>

32. A Giovanni Maria Benzoni sculpture depicts this figure dressed in a clinging dress and diaphanous veil, both of which were created by marble. For 10 points each:
[10m] Name this Old Testament figure who is portrayed with her head bowing and gaze lowered moments before meeting her husband Isaac.
ANSWER: Rebecca [or Rebekah]
[10e] Veiled women became an allegory for the unification of this country, which occurred during the Risorgimento.
ANSWER: Italy [or Italia]
[10h] The Veiled Rebecca sculpture is currently in Hyderabad's Salar Jung Museum, along with a double-sided wooden sculpture of Margaretta and this figure that Salar Jung acquired on the same trip to Rome.
ANSWER: Mephistopheles
<Simarya, Otherac>

33. Name some tributaries of the Dnieper River, for 10 points each:
[10e] This river is the second longest tributary of the Dnieper after the Desna. A 1986 nuclear disaster along this river forced the abandonment of a Ukrainian city named for this river.
ANSWER: Pripyat' River [or Pripyats; or Prypeć]
[10m] This river was the site of an 1812 battle fought by Russian forces against the retreating Napoleon. Although the Russians failed to destroy his army, this river now gives its name to a French term meaning a complete disaster or defeat.
ANSWER: Berezina River [or Byarezina; accept bérézina]
[10h] This river's confluence with the Dnieper is at the Kyiv Reservoir near the town of Kozarovychi, which saw an additional dam constructed to prevent flooding of its basin. In 2022, that dam along this river was opened by Ukrainian forces to halt a Russian advance.
ANSWER: Irpin' River [or Irpen']
<Andrea, Geography/AARHUS>

34. The answer to this question is most frequently “yes,” with about 52% of respondents picking that option over the course of the 2025-2026 school year. For 10 points each
[10e] What question with possible answers, “yes,” “no” and “maybe” has appeared on the majority of UWQB related google forms over the year?
ANSWER: Are you a fish?
[10h] The first instance of someone responding “yes” to the question “are you a fish?” is this person who did so at 9:39 PM on October 12th 2025. On November 15th 2024 this person asked “are fish birds.”
ANSWER: Phoebe Chu [either underlined part is acceptable.]
[10m] Of course the original UWQB fish is Fish! One of their most enduring contributions to our club is their design of numerous logos and t-shirt, including our 2023-2024 t-shirt, whose color scheme is based on this fictional character.
ANSWER: Neon (From Valorant)
<Euan, UWQB>

35. Did you know that the Maritime Provinces have actually had an impact on pop culture? For 10 points each:
[10e] One of the most notable representations of the Maritimes in pop culture is this novel by Lucy Maud Montgomery, which is set in the fictional Prince Edward Island community of Avonlea.
ANSWER: Anne of Green Gables
[10m] Trailer Park Boys is set in this settlement on the eastern end of Halifax Harbour. This city is linked to its more populous neighbor by the longest continuously operating saltwater ferry in North America.
ANSWER: Dartmouth, Nova Scotia [prompt on Halifax since technically it’s governed by Halifax municipality]
[10h] Okay you got me, nothing impactful has ever happened in New Brunswick. The best I could find is that it’s the birthplace of actor Donald Sutherland, whose roles include this character in 2005’s Pride and Prejudice.
ANSWER: Mr. Bennet [prompt on descriptions of Elizabeth’s father or similar]
<Sasha, Otherac>

36. Answer the following about the BBC quiz show Only Connect, for 10 points each:
[10e] A recent Connecting Wall grouped Wordle, Vertex, Mini, and Tiles as daily games made by this company. This company also included the words “only”, “connect”, “olive”, and “branch” in its daily Connections puzzle in response to criticism of the game by contestants.
ANSWER: New York Times
[10m] This host of Only Connect has hosted the show since it launched in 2008. She also shares the record for most wins on the European Poker Tour and is the only woman to win multiple events.
ANSWER: Victoria Coren Mitchell [accept Coren Mitchell; prompt on Mitchell alone]
[10h] At the end of each episode in Series 21, Victoria Coren Mitchell reads this epic poem. She reaches the end of the first sentence in the outro of the 4th episode of the series, and upon doing so says, “Hallelujah, we got to the full stop.”
ANSWER: “Paradise Lost”
<Marcus, OFA>

37. The fires of Hell burn hot and red. For 10 points each:
[10e] Boiling water touching human skin appears to have happened in some religious contexts. Aurangzeb had Bhai Dalaya tied to iron chains while water up to his shoulders was heated to boiling. He attempted to recite the Japji Sahib until becoming a martyr for this religion alongside Guru Tegh Bahadar.
ANSWER: Sikhism
[10h] During her journey from Shandong to Luoyang, Sun Bu'er splashed her face with boiling oil such that her newfound ugliness would prevent men from hindering her journey. She went on this expedition after joining the "Seven Perfected" of this religious school.
ANSWER: Quanzhen School [accept Complete Perfected, Integrating Perfection, or Complete Reality]
[10m] Bishop Gregory of Tours described witnessing a Catholic Priest best an Arianist rival by plucking one of these objects from a boiling cauldron. The Gregorian Sacrament equates receiving one of these objects as a "seal of faith".
ANSWER: Ecclesiastical Ring [accept Signet ring]
<Gavin, Religion>

38. Answer the following about the many lawsuits and controversies following the release of Borat! Cultural Learnings of America for Make Benefit Glorious Nation of Kazakhstan. For 10 points each:
[10h] Fraternity boys from this university sued for defamation after they were portrayed in the movie making misogynistic comments and advocating for the return of slavery.
ANSWER: University of South Carolina [prompt on USC]
[10e] This man's poor reaction to "Borat" allegedly led to his 2006 divorce from Pamela Anderson. His more recent activities include being the headliner for Turning Point USA's Super Bowl Halftime Show.
ANSWER: Kid Rock [or Robert James Ritchie]
[10m] This country heavily censored "Borat" to make it roughly 30 minutes long and is the only Arab country besides Lebanon to not ban the movie altogether. In 2021, this country introduced a 21+ age category to stop censorship for adult content.
ANSWER: the United Arab Emirates [or UAE]
<Simarya, Otherac>

39. The title character of this opera hides his mortality in one of his cruel and cold daughter's tears, a characteristic that reflects his common depiction in Russian folklore. For 10 points each:
[10h] Name this opera. The title evil wizard of this opera later dies after his captive, the Tsarevna, kisses his daughter out of compassion, moving her to tears.
ANSWER: Koschei the Immortal [or Kashchei the Deathless; or Koshchei Bessmertny]
[10m] That opera is a "Little Autumn Fairy Tale" by this composer, who contrasted it with his earlier "Spring Fairy Tale," The Snow Maiden. This composer also privately taught Igor Stravinsky, who later created a ballet that also features Koschei.
ANSWER: Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov
[10e] That Stravinsky work is this ballet which features Koschei as its primary antagonist. In later concert suite adaptations of this ballet, the "Infernal Dance of Koschei's Subjects" follows the "Khorovod" of the thirteen princesses from this ballet.
ANSWER: The Firebird [or L'Oiseau de feu; or Zhar-ptitsa]
<Andrea, OFA/AARHUS>

40. The writer of this bonus woke up at 6 A.M. today. Answer the following about the ongoing Rocket League Major, for 10 points each:
[10e] The event is occurring at an arena in this capital city's business district of La Défense.
ANSWER: Paris, France
[10m] Only two out of 48 players at the Paris Major are from this country, largely because of the abysmal performance of Geekay Esports, who won a single series in three events, and rise., who is returning to this country from North America for the Last Chance Qualifier.
ANSWER: England [or Great Britain; begrudgingly prompt on United Kingdom; reject "Scotland," "Wales," or "Northern Ireland"]
[10h] Team Falcons missed the Paris Major for the first time since 2023 despite giving the highest salary in Rocket League history to this Moroccan player, who was awarded the 2025 European MVP while playing for Karmine Corp.
ANSWER: dralii [or Samy Hajji]
<Aaron, Sport>

41. If I had a nickel for every civilian aircraft brought down by a Sukhoi Su-15, I'd have three nickels. For 10 points each:
[10m] This aircraft was shot down in 1983 after a navigational error led to it straying far north into Soviet-controlled airspace over Kamchatka and Sakhalin. The crash of this Boeing 747 killed all 269 people aboard, including a U.S. representative.
ANSWER: Korean Air Lines Flight 007 [or KE 007; or KAL 007; or KOREANAIR 007]
[10h] This other Korean Air Lines aircraft was shot down 5 years earlier over Karelia after a navigational error caused by its proximity to the North Magnetic Pole led it to stray into Soviet airspace. Unlike Flight 007, only two of the 109 occupants aboard this flight were fatally wounded.
ANSWER: Korean Air Lines Flight 902 [or KE 902; or KAL 902; or KOREANAIR 902]
[10e] In 1981, a Canadair CL-44 chartered by arms dealer Stuart Allen McAfferty crashed after being rammed by an Su-15 while shipping weapons from Tel Aviv to Tehran as part of this broader initiative. This project tried to fund anti-Sandinista rebels using the proceeds from the aforementioned arms trafficking.
ANSWER: Iran-Contra affair [or Iran-Contra scandal]
<Andrea, Other/AARHUS>

42. Many people faintly remember childhood TV shows that seem to have faded into the abyss. Name these discontinued or fundamentally changed PBS kids shows, for 10 points each:
[10m] The Kratt brothers have had at least one show airing on the channel since 1996, focusing on wildlife and conservation, including this show was bookended by Kratt's Creatures and Be The Creature.
ANSWER: Zobooamafoo
[10e] The main character of this show that was cancelled in 2014 is a talking dog, designed to teach phonics and vocabulary. She gains her speaking ability after being fed a bowl of alphabet soup.
ANSWER: Martha Speaks
[10h] This show's final season concluded in 2023, and it focuses on Izzie, a 12 year old girl who is able to zap herself into real life to follow girls doing real science. This show's PBS kids website page used to host the author's favorite PBS kids game where you curate a bee garden and manage a beehive.
ANSWER: SciGirls
<Deeksha, Film>

43. Answer some questions loosely related to Sebastian Ziani de Ferranti. For 10 points each:
[10e] Ferranti pioneered the use of this electrical standard in the United Kingdom, to which his namesake law relating to long transmission lines applies. This type of current is contrasted with direct current.
ANSWER: alternating current
[10h] Ferranti's namesake company later produced the Ferranti Mk. 1, the first commercially available and fully electronic one of these devices. It was also the first one of these devices to generate music and be recorded, although the record of the first to simply play music goes to Australia's CSIRAC ("SIGH-rack").
ANSWER: digital computer
[10m] During the Cold War, Ferranti manufactured the Blue Fox and Blue Vixen radar sets for the "FRS.1" and "FA.2" modifications of this aircraft. This family of "jump jets" has been used extensively by the R.A.F and Royal Navy, as well as by the U.S. Marine Corps under the designation "AV-8."
ANSWER: British Aerospace Harrier [or Hawker-Siddeley Harrier]
<Andrea, Other/AARHUS>

44. "Bitch! Bitch! I knew you would win!" Answer the following about the great nation of Bulgaria, for 10 points each:
[10h] The aforementioned quote was said by 2025 winner JJ when this artist won the Eurovision Song Contest with her song "Bangaranga".
ANSWER: Dara
[10m] The first female president of Bulgaria was this woman, who took office in January 2026. In 2021, this woman was reelected alongside Rumen Radov, who would resign as President and establish the Progressive Bulgaria party.
ANSWER: Iliana Iotova [or Iliana Malinova Iotova]
[10e] Also in 2026, the unofficial instagram account of Bulgaria had beef with this country. The unofficial instagram account of this mediterranean microstate mostly contains memes mocking Bulgaria.
ANSWER: Malta
<Isabella, Eurovision>

45. The concentration of this nuclear species in Vienna Standard Mean Ocean Water is 2,005.20 ± 0.45 parts per million. For 10 points each:
[10e] The relative abundance of this isotope versus oxygen-16 is most often used to reconstruct paleoclimate records from ice cores. This isotope is the heaviest stable isotope of oxygen.
ANSWER: oxygen-18
[10m] Changes in the ratios of isotopes, such as delta-18-O, are caused by this general process. In water, this process occurs during phase changes since isotopically lighter water containing oxygen-16 vaporizes more readily, leading to glacial ice being depleted in oxygen-18 compared to ocean water.
ANSWER: Rayleigh (isotope) fractionation [accept equilibrium (isotope) fractionation or kinetic (isotope) fractionation]
[10h] Oxygen isotopes have been used to calibrate this type of isotope thermometry, whose results are reported as "cap 47." Compared to δ18O ("delta-18-O") paleothermometry, this type of isotope thermometry does not require assumptions about the seawater composition.
ANSWER: carbonate clumped isotope thermometry [or 13C–18O order/disorder carbonate thermometer; prompt on partial answers]
<Andrea, OtherSci/AARHUS>

46. This structure's oscillation in windy conditions led to it being nicknamed "Galloping Gertie" by construction workers. For 10 points each:
[10e] Name this bridge named after a city in Washington that collapsed in November 1940, only four months after it opened. This bridge's collapse is commonly cited in physics and engineering textbooks.
ANSWER: Tacoma Narrows Bridge
[10h] The collapse of the Tacoma Narrows Bridge is often erroneously attributed to this effect that occurs when a system is subjected to a driving frequency that is close to its natural frequency.
ANSWER: resonance
[10m] To account for the effects of aeroelastic flutter, the actual cause of the collapse, bridges must be tested using these devices. Smoke is often used to visualize the flow of air through these devices.
ANSWER: wind tunnels
<Richard Lin, ACFslop>

47. Name these characters from Arrested Development, for 10 points each:
[10e] This character exclaims, "maybe I'll get a son who WILL finish his cottage cheese!" before drunkenly signing adoption papers. This character is attracted to her brother-in-law's long, flowing hair, leading to an affair that disturbs her son Buster.
ANSWER: Lucille Bluth
[10m] Although she is suspected of trying to take over the Bluth family company, this character reveals that she only bought the shares "to support you guys!" This character is the primary love interest of Lucille's son Buster.
ANSWER: Lucille Austero [accept Lucille Two]
[10h] This character appears as an antagonist in the finale of Arrested Development's original run. This character acquires a taste for terminally ill cats after participating in a magic trick. Later, this character answers Lucille Bluth's prayers by feasting upon the right hand of Lucille Austero's ex-boyfriend Buster.
ANSWER: The Loose Seal
[20?] For 20 points, answer a bonus bonus part. Note to players: intonation required. When asked to consider the possibility that Lucille Bluth could be attractive to someone, her son Michael asks this question about her. Michael most frequently asks this question in reference to one of his son's few non-cousin love interests.
ANSWER: Her?
<Anya + Sonya, Film>

48. We need more bonuses and coincidentally there are three Amtrak stations within Boston city limits. For 10 points each:
[10e] Boston North station is located directly under this sports arena. For some reason this arena is named for a Canadian bank.
ANSWER: TD Garden
[10m] Boston South station was recently renamed after this second Greek-American to become a state governor. He is better known for getting blown out in the 1988 election by George HW Bush.
ANSWER: Michael Dukakis
[10h] Boston Back Bay station is located in the same neighborhood as the John Hancock center, which was designed by this man's architectural firm.
ANSWER: I. M. Pei
<Sasha, Amhist>

49. A BFA is a Bachelor of Fine Arts as opposed to your typical BA. So what is a BFABA? That's right, for 10 points each:
[10m] Welcome to the inaugural bonus of Bad French Accent Before & After. We are going to start off with painters, principally this man of Et in arcadia ego who Antonio Banderas voices in "The Last Wish" of a certain furry hero.

ANSWER: Nicolas Poussin Boots [accept Nicolas Poussin AND Puss in Boots]
[10h] This creepy friend of Van Gogh ventured to Tahiti to partake in an affair with Lancelot.
ANSWER: Paul Gauguinevere
[10e] Painting Water Lilies is probably better than an ensuing Tulip Crisis which could be fixed with this policy of changing interest rates and other non fiscal measures to secure a stable economy.
ANSWER: Claude Monetary Policy [or "Moh-nay"-tary Policy; accept Claude Monet AND Monetary Policy]
<Gavin, France>

50. This scientist created one of the earliest modern clean rooms at Caltech in order to remove contamination from zircons. For 10 points each:
[10h] Name this scientist who radiometrically dated the Canyon Diablo meteorite alongside George Tilton. This scientist is commonly credited as the first person to determine the "true" age of the Earth at 4.55 billion years old.
ANSWER: Clair Patterson [or Clair Cameron Patterson]
[10e] Patterson compared ratios of isotopes of this element in a namesake dating method, one which has mostly been superseded by a method that measures a uranium decay chain ending with this element. Later in life, Patterson campaigned for the removal of this element from gasoline, which was originally added as an anti-knocking agent.
ANSWER: lead [or Pb; accept lead-lead dating or Pb-Pb dating; accept uranium-lead dating or U-Pb dating; accept leaded gasoline; accept tetraethyl lead or TEL]
[10m] Cameron fought the legacy of this American chemical engineer, who first discovered the anti-knock properties of tetraethyl lead and also helped develop Freon. This man is remembered as a "one-man environmental disaster" and having "more adverse impact on the atmosphere than any other single organism in Earth's history."
ANSWER: Thomas Midgley Jr.
<Andrea, OtherSci/AARHUS>

51.Sometimes, we are not creative with the names of our rivers. For 10 points each:
[10e] The Prairie Dog Town Fork is a wonderful, beautiful name for a river. Unfortunately, the Prairie Dog Town Fork feeds this ugly river. This river constitutes most of the Texas-Oklahoma border and is the largest tributary of the Atchafalaya.
ANSWER: Red River of the South
[10m] In the rainy season, it is occasionally possible to canoe from the headwaters of the Red River of the South all the way to Hudson Bay. This large tributary of the Assiniboine ("uh-SIN-i-boyn"), whose banks host the small towns of Grand Forks and Fargo, constitutes most of the border between Minnesota and North Dakota.
ANSWER: Red River of the North
[10h] Sometimes, we are creative with the names of our rivers. The city of Ha Noi lies in the delta of this major river in northern Vietnam.
ANSWER: Red River [or Hong He or Song Hong or Song Cai or Yuan Jiang]
<Anya, River>

52. Bad French Accent is back now with everyone's favorite assholes, which of course I am referring to French People. More specifically politicians. For 10 Points Each:
[10e] This National Rally Leader's name fits really well with a certain phallic object she resembles.
ANSWER: Marie Le Penis [accept Marie Le Pen AND penis]
[10h] This Fourth Republic president implemented a plan during the Indochina War revolving around the Kalamata species and tree associated with peace.
ANSWER: Vincent Auriolive [accept Vincent Auriol AND olive]
[10m] "Even their migrants are fleeing, because no one wants to live with them" was uttered about Germans by this painting of friends gathering at Maison Fournaise by Renoir.
ANSWER: Jean Luc Melenchon of the Boating Party [accept Jean Luc Melenchon AND Luncheon of the Boating Party]
<Gavin, France>

53. You are a major European power in the year 1901. For 10 points each:
[10e] If you're Germany, Italy, France, or Austria-Hungary, your pathway to victory is blocked by this "impassable" nation.
ANSWER: Switzerland
[10m] Switzerland is impassable in this game that was the first commercially published game regularly "played by mail". In this game, seven players move troops and fleets around a board, taking supply centers and vying for world domination.
ANSWER: Diplomacy
[10h] In the first game of Diplomacy I ever completed, the winner was this Croatian bioengineer, as was announced in the UWQB Discord server on February 14th, 2026. This man notably staffed SCT.
ANSWER: Alek Prunk [accept either underlined portion]
<Anya, Board Game>

54. Archive of Our Own, colloquially known as AO3 is a hub for literary masterpieces, or at least what over 10 million users think is peak literature. Answer the following about the beloved fanfiction site, for 10 points each:
[10h] In middle school, I was introduced to AO3 through this Harry Potter prequel fanfic. This fanfic is centered around the Marauders and makes many references to glam rock and punk of the 1970s, the period when it is set.
ANSWER: All the Young Dudes (or atyd) by MsKingBean89
[10e] The AO3 website went down for maintenance for longer than expected in March of 2026, which, without their beloved reading, prompted many users to blame the crash on the fandom of this book series and TV show about secretly gay hockey players.
ANSWER: Heated Rivalry
[10m] In April 2026, Archive of Our Own announced they would be exiting open beta testing. Beta is one of the secondary sexes in this fanfiction trope, where characters display wolf-like traits and men can get pregnant.
ANSWER: Omegaverse
<Isabella, Amlit>

55. POV: your car breaks down in Vancouver, Canada. For 10 points each:
[10m] Although you have USAA for insurance, you have to call BCAA which is a local subsidiary of this typical American auto insurance.
ANSWER: AAA [or Triple-A]
[10e] Ironically, the Indian food you eat in your non-moving car leads you to get towed to this suburb known for its high population of Sikh People.
ANSWER: Surrey
[10h] You later learn that the issue was with this electromagnet involved in the internal combustion reaction to start the engine. While idle, this component receives electric current from the car battery and ignition switch.
ANSWER: starter solenoid [or starter relay; prompt on partial answers]
<Gavin, Broke Down>